JUDGMENT

Heard counsel for the petitioner, standing counsel for KSEB and I have gone through the sketch produced by standing counsel for KSEB. Since stay wire is absolutely required to keep the post supporting 33 KV feeder line stable, there is no scope for interference with the proposal to instal stay wire in the petitioner's property. However, petitioner is free to claim compensation for damage, if any, caused to his property. W.P. is closed leaving freedom to the petitioner to claim compensation for damage, if any, caused to his property by drawal of stay wire.
